Do you have any 2018-09-07 18:35:56 comments or concerns?	If we are going to raise the age to purchase tobacco then I think we need to take the conversation further. Are we really adults at 18? If so as the law states adults should be aloud to make an informed decision on their own about whether to smoke tobacco products. If you do not trust an 18 year old to make a decision about tobacco then why do you trust them to go to war for our country? Everyone is going to die. If your parents smoke you're around second hand smoke which supposedly is worse. I've known people who didn't smoke get cancer, because there are different types of cancer. You could get hit by a car. Stop trying to control people. I smoked at a young age, but I don't smoke now. I tried pot before it didn't	I live in Washington County, Ohio

Also, the statements that brains aren't developed enough to make these decisions is utter nonsense. Obviously they can think enough	I live in Washington County, Ohio

	Seems to me that the county HD doesn't mind if a person can go to war and be shot or killed for Ohioans, just don't smoke while their doing it. Government taking away choices and rights. Also be advised that I am a former smoker,(my choice) and a veteran of 21 years of service. If you take away things that (kill) start with cars,phones and anything else that is detrimental to one's health.

2018-06-11 22:02:49	Do you have any comments or concerns?	I think if all Ohio would do it would be more affective. They could still go to Williamstown wv and purchase... or even all over Ohio. You have military people under the age of 21. Are you going to tell them they can risk their life but not be able to buy tobacco if they want to. No matter what you do people will get it if they want it.	I live in Washington County, Ohio	I work in Washington County, Ohio
